PAST GRANDE PRAIRIE EVENT WINNERS – When the Cup Series last travelled to Grande Prairie in October 2023, Dakota Buttar delivered a performance which would significantly impact his quest for his second national title. Going a perfect 3-for-3, Buttar won the PBR Peace Country Invitational, vaulting to the No. 1 position in the 2023 PBR Canada Championship race. The win came at a painful price as Buttar sustained a sidelining injury when exiting his winning ride in the championship round. Buttar first put points on the board in Round 1 when he covered War Boy for 84 points. In the second round, the Saskatchewan man then elected to go head-to-head with Hanna Motors Broken Halo. Remaining in perfect time with the powerful animal athlete, Buttar reached the whistle, awarded 87 points to punch his ticket to the championship round third on the overall event leaderboard. With an early pick in the championship round bull draft, Buttar architected a showdown with Chico. Bursting from the chutes, Buttar made the whistle event-best 89.5 points to clinch the victory. Buttar's event win, and second place finish in the accompanying 5/5 Bucking Battle, netted him a combined 158 national points. He surged from No. 3 to No. 1 in the nation, propelled 10.84 points ahead of No. 2 Cody Coverchuk. Despite the celebration, Buttar's season was immediately put on pause. During his dismount from Chico, Buttar broke his collarbone, ultimately unable to compete until the 2023 National Finals. While Buttar missed the final month of the regular season, slipping to No. 3 in the standings, he showed no rust at the 2023 PBR Canada National Finals. Going a perfect 4-for-4, tying for second at the year-end event, Buttar made a come-from-behind surge for the record books, crowned the 2023 PBR Canada Champion, earning the first-ever $100,000 Champions bonus. Buttar concluded the campaign 38.84 points ahead of 2022 PBR Canada Champion and the 2024 season's No. 2 Nick Tetz
