BACK TO BUCKING IN GRANDE PRAIRIE – This week, for the seventh time in history, PBR Canada's elite Cup Series will buck into Grande Prairie, Alberta. The PBR Peace Country Invitational, the eighth elite tour event of the season, will be held at Bonnetts Energy Centre on September 26. The action gets underway at 7:00 p.m. MDT.

THIS WEEKEND'S FORMAT – The PBR Peace Country Invitational will feature two rounds of bull riding and is a Tier 1 Challenger Series Global event. Each rider will get on one bull in Round 1 on Saturday. The 10 bull riders with the top scores will then advance to the championship round later that evening, where they will attempt one final bull in an effort to be crowned the event champion. This weekend, one rider will have the chance to earn 120 national points, in addition to ride score points.

LOOKING BACK AT KELOWNA – While it may have been roughly two months since the elite Cup Series was last in action, for most it feels like just yesterday. And when we last bucked in Kelowna, British Columbia, the already intense title race got even fiercer, as for the first time this season a formidable champion found his way to the winner's circle. In front of a record-setting, sold-out crowd two-time PBR Canada Champion Dakota Buttar rode supreme, going a perfect 2-for-2 to win the Okanagan Challenge, presented by Dirty Diesel Customs, inside Prospera Place. The win marked Buttar's first of the season across all levels of competition and allowed him to further his stronghold on the then No. 3 rank in the race for the 2026 PBR Canada Championship. As action got underway in Round 1, Buttar took on Bad Magic. Remaining in perfect time with the animal athlete, Buttar reached the requisite 8 for 85.4 points to split the round win. With the first pick in the championship round bull draft, the veteran contender elected to go head-to-head with God Bless. In a decision which proved dividends, Buttar rode the bull for an event-best 88.2 points to win the PBR Okanagan Challenge in walk off form. Courtesy of the golden finish, Buttar earned a crucial 131 national points. While he remained a then No. 3 in the standings, he closed within 499.33 points of No. 1 Nick Tetz.

Tetz finished fourth in Kelowna, collecting 38 national points. After riding Cracker Jack for 85.3 points in Round 1, Tetz was bucked off by Stray Bucks in an uncharacteristic 4.01 seconds in the championship round. At the conclusion of the seventh Cup Series event of 2026, Tetz led No. 2 Gilmar Santana by 374.33 points. Santana prevented Tetz from gaining further ground by delivering a fifth-place finish of his own inside Prospera Place. The surging Brazilian covered The Goat for 83.7 points in Round 1 but was tossed by Rank Frank in 5.05 seconds in the final round. The 1-for-2 showing netted Santana 32 national points.

TIME TO TALK TOURING PRO DIVISION – While it may have only been roughly two months since the most recent Cup Series event in Kelowna, British Columbia, the PBR Canada Touring Pro Division event has been in full swing, holding eight events. Here's a recap of how each event unfolded:

Czar Lake, Alberta (July 17): As the 2026 season continued on July 17 at the Shomcliffe Lake Rodeo Grounds, Tyler Craig showed up and showed out, going a perfect 2-for-2 to win the Touring Pro Division's Czar Lake Bullarama, cracking the then Top 15 in the race for the 2026 PBR Canada Championship. FAMILIAR WATERS – Round 1 of the PBR Peace Country Invitational will feature six rematches. The riders facing familiar opponents are:

- Dakota Buttar has drawn Whiskey Moon for the fourth time in his career and will look to improve to an even 2-2 in Grande Prairie. When the two first met at the 2025 PBR Canada National Finals, Buttar rode the bull for 85.75 points in Round 2 of the year-end event. However, in their subsequent two meetings, Whiskey Moon has emerged the supreme athlete. At the November 2025 Touring Pro Division event in Lloydminster, Saskatchewan, Buttar was bucked off in 2.84 seconds, while their most recent showdown in January 2026 at the season-launch Cup Series event in Red Deer, Alberta, ended in a 2.57-second buck off.
- Gilmar Santana will face a rubber match against Gypsy Man. Santana rode the powerful animal athlete for 83.5 point this August en route to his Touring Pro Division victory in Tofield, Alberta. However, earlier this month at the developmental event in Armstrong, British Columbia, the Brazilian was dispatched in a close 7.68 seconds by the bull.
- Chanse Switzer will look to remain perfect against Frozen Ghost. Renewing a rivalry from 2024, Switzer rode Frozen Ghost for 81.5 points that season at the Touring Pro Division event in Coronation, Alberta.
- Lonnie West will attempt to reverse his fortunes aboard Hammer Time, having yet to cover the bull in their two meetings on record. The duo first danced in May 2025 at the Touring Pro Division event in Brooks, Alberta, when West was tossed in 5.97 seconds. Later that season at the 2025 PBR Canada National Finals, West was again bested by the bull, this time in 6.58 seconds.
- Austin Paley will climb aboard Pay Day for the second time in his career. In May 2025, Pay Day bested Paley in 1.68 seconds at the Touring Pro Division stop in Camrose, Alberta.
- William Barrows has drawn the final rematch in Surprise Twist. Barrows was bucked off by the bull in 3.56 seconds at the April 2025 Touring Pro Division event in Marwayne, Alberta.

NEXT UP – Following a roughly one-month break, the 2026 PBR Canada Sup Series will next travel to Medicine Hat, Alberta, and Co-op Place for the PBR Medicine Hat Classic on Saturday, October 17. Action will get underway at 7 p.m. MT.
